[HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, No. 322.]

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, January 5, 1865.—Read first and second times, made continuing special order after existing special order, and ordered to be printed.

[By Mr. LYON, from Committee on Ways and Means.

A BILL

To be entitled An Act repealing certain abatements from the property tax and income tax, and amending the said tax laws.

The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, That the provisos to the first paragraph of the first section of the act passed the fourteenth day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, entitled "An Act to amend the tax laws," and the second paragraph of the eighth section of the said act, be, and the same are hereby repealed: saving, however, to all persons all rights heretofore accrued to them by virtue of the same.

SEC. 2. In the year eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and in each year thereafter, there shall be levied and collected as well the tax in kind on the products of property employed in agriculture, and the tax on incomes derived from other property, as the tax on the value of the property from which such products and incomes are derived: the said taxes to be levied and collected according to the assessments thereof required by existing laws.

SEC. 3. This act shall be in force from and after the passing thereof.
